Emerging Growth Award Presented to Juno Lighting, Inc.

Speaker: T. Tracy Bilbrough
President & CEO
Juno Lighting Group

T. Tracy Bilbrough joined Juno Lighting Group in 2000 as President and CEO. In this role, Mr. Bilbrough is responsible for leading this company's worldwide operations and strategy.

From 1997 to 2000, Mr. Bilbrough was President of the commercial division of Thomas & Betts Corporation, a manufacturer of electrical and electronic components. From 1995 to 1997, Mr. Bilbrough was President, Eastern Hemisphere for Black & Decker, a global tool manufacturer. He joined Black & Decker in 1978.

Mr. Bilbrough holds a Master of Business Administration from the University of Baltimore and a Bachelor of Arts in economics from Loyola College. He resides in Arlington Heights, Ill. with his wife Lynda and daughter Matti.

Juno Lighting Group is a leading designer, assembler, and marketer of recessed, track and commercial lighting fixtures. The Company's broad line is used primarily in residential and commercial new construction, remodeling, and retail lighting applications. Juno competes based on industry-leading product innovation and design, strong customer service, a differentiated manufacturing and assembly model, and a broad distribution footprint that provides fast delivery.

Tracy Bilbrough and his team at Juno Lighting Group executed a strategy of sustained growth and financial performance in a relatively mature industry. In September 2005, Juno Lighting Group was acquired by Square D Company, a subsidiary of Schneider Electric, because of this performance. Juno and Square D have complementary products and market channels.
