

ASSOCIATE CORPORATE MEMBERS

Exclusively for CORPORATE (see designation in previous page) members of ACG Western Michigan.

To be considered a corporate member, the company CANNOT fall into the advisor, capital provider, community or intermediary categories.

Corporate members may add up to five ASSOCIATE CORPORATE members under their membership, at no additional charge. This means that up to six individuals from an organization may attend ACG Western Michigan programs and events: the Corporate member and five Associate Corporate members.

Benefits of Associate Corporate Membership:

- Opportunities for personal growth and development with other ACG Western Michigan members including executives in finance, law, marketing and operations, owners of small and middle market businesses, and representatives from many of the major professional service firms.
- Receipt of program notices and event invitations to monthly chapter meetings featuring local, regional and national business leaders, breakfast roundtables, and the ACG Western Michigan Annual Dinner with notable keynote speakers.
- Associate Corporate Members will be members of the ACG Western Michigan chapter only and will be welcome at all ACG Western Michigan programs and events as members of ACG Western Michigan.

Limitations of Associate Corporate Membership:

- Associate Corporate Members are restricted to membership in the ACG Western Michigan chapter and will not receive ACG global member benefits
- Associate Corporate Members will NOT receive notices from ACG Global, The Mergers & Acquisitions Magazine or access to ACG Global's Network
